Ryan,

It's a new year, and that means a fresh set of challenges for you and me.

Liberals in congress vote along party lines instead of considering what's really best for you or your family. They only care about their narrow political views and will stop at nothing to undermine the progress you're making to advance conservative policy victories that actually work for the American people.

You and I must stand up to them in 2020, and we need to start now.

When you activate your Heritage membership, you will preserve and advance conservative change in America.
